Press Release Dancesport Germany

DTV Professional Division (DTV PD)

2013-02-25

Three times World Champions Benedetto Ferruggia and Claudia Köhler have decided to turn Professionals. They will compete in the German Professional Division of WDSF (DTV PD) from now on.

They both started their career in a very young age in the Latin and Standard dances. Since 2004 they dance together as a Standard couple, competing for Germany. In 2012 they have been honoured by DTV-President Franz Allert and Sports Director Michael Eichert with the „Honour Medal“ of Dancesport Germany for their third title as world champions. Earlier in 2012 they have been awarded with the „Silbernes Lorbeerblatt“, the highest award given to athletes by the German federal government.

Besides of six titles as German champions (2007-2012), four titles as European champions (2009-2012) and three titles as world champions (2009, 2010, 2012) they also became second at the World Games in Kaoshiung, China, in 2009.
