

Technical Operations Manager AIMAG 2017

Job description

Job Title	Technical Operations Manager
Reporting To	Sport Competition Manager
Purpose	To support and deliver sport technical requirements in conjunction with Sport Operations and Venue Management.
Key Accountabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Support the Sport Competition Manager in the overall planning and delivery of the Field of Play (FOP) and how it is managed • Manage the technical operations of the FOP and ensure all training, competition and ceremonies are run in compliance with the rules of the International Federation • Provide technical advice and support to venue management and other functions to ensure the facilities meet the technical requirements of the sport • Liaise with technology to ensure that the timing, results and scoring elements of pre, during and post competition are planned, tested and delivered to the required standards • Support of Competition Schedule development and delivery • Coordination of ITO/NTO administration and operational requirements, including the recruitment and training of NTOs • Contribute to venue designs and sport areas set-up • Delivery of Sport Specific Technical Documentation
Knowledge, Experience and Qualifications Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Technical sport knowledge at an international level • Ability to deliver detailed sports competition schedules, run sheets and briefings • Operational experience delivering FOP technical support • Line management of operational teams • Experience in a Multi-sport environment • Understanding of all operational aspects of delivering sport events including: FOP Management, Athlete Services, Equipment Management and Federation Support