

Press Release 01/2006

February 22, 2006

Competitors' Participation in IDSA Events

It is IDSF policy that couples affiliated with IDSF Member bodies shall not participate in IDSA events. Athletes who participate in IDSA events shall be subject to IDSF sanctions (for example exclusion of specific couples or athletes from IDSF-granted competitions), without further notice, or sanctions against couples or athletes as agreed by their governing IDSF Member body; IDSF Member bodies whose athletes participate in IDSA events shall also be subject to IDSF sanctions (for example exclusion of their couples or athletes from IDSF-granted competitions), without further notice.

Adjudicators' Participation in IDSA Events

It is IDSF policy that IDSF-registered Adjudicators shall not participate in IDSA events. IDSF-registered Adjudicators participating in IDSA events shall be subject to IDSF sanctions (for example exclusion from IDSF adjudicating panels and suspension or revocation of their privileges under their IDSF Adjudicator's Licences) without further notice, or sanctions against them as agreed by their governing IDSF Member body.

It is IDSF policy that adjudicators of IDSF Member bodies shall not officiate at IDSA events. Members whose adjudicators officiate in IDSA events shall be subject to IDSF sanctions (for example exclusion from adjudicating panels of IDSF granted competitions), or sanctions against their adjudicators, without further notice.

The Presidium
International DanceSport Federation (IDSF)

